Story

In days of yore, a temple that towered up to the sky was the hiding place of the "Stone of the Wise", a symbol of power. Legend has it that the one who succeeded in taking the stone to the top of the towering temple... "The Skyscraper" ... would be awarded the power to rule over the earth. People and demons had been in a relationship of peaceful coexistence on Earth. However, the demons decided they would bring Earth under their control by obtaining the "Stone of the Wise". If they were not stopped before they brought the "Stone of the Wise" to the top of the temple, Earth would come under the rule of the demons. Many people simply cowered in fear. But a young, brave warrior rose up and headed for the temple, which the demons had turned into their lair. The young man's name was Rastan,

A FLEE,
HOW I AM DETERMINED TO

AT ALL COSTS!"

and this was to be the first great test of a legendary hero whose name would be uttered with reverence by generations to come.

A wise elder spoke to Rastan as he set off on his journey. "There will be five barriers on your way and each barrier contains three traps. The first trap contains a band of lower and middle-grade demons. The second trap contains a device. The third trap contains the guardian of the demons whom you must meet in single combat. It is said that he is a very wily and evil foe. I have also heard that the guardian of the final barrier is the leader of the demons, and extremely formidable foe who has discovered the secret of eternal life." It is a fearful mission that you undertake but you should be brave and set out.

Using your control pad

This is an action game that features horizontal scrolling. You manipulate Rastan to defeat the attacking demons and allow him to advance to the right on the path of trials.

Δ Directional Button (D Button)

By pressing the left and right buttons you move Rastan to the left or right. Generally speaking, the up-down button is not used for movement.

Δ A Button (Attack Button)

Rastan attacks with weapons. When this button is not depressed, he automatically goes into a defense stance.

Δ B Button (Jump Button)

Rastan can jump. Use this button to climb over elevations and to attack enemies in the air. When this button pressed together with the left-right Directional Button, Rastan jumps sideways. Press the Jump Button lightly for a small jump and longer for a big jump.

Δ C Button

Not used.

Δ Start Button

Used to start the game. When the Start Button is pressed during the game, the game goes to still screen (pause state). Press the Start Button again to resume play.

Attack

When the A Button on the control pad is pressed, it is possible to attack. When used together with the Direction Button, it is possible to attack in four directions: up, down, left, and right.

Normal Thrust

 A Button + Up Direction Button;

Rastan swings his sword over his head.

Rastan swings his sword to the left (or right).

Rastan crouches and swings his sword to the left (or right).

Jump Thrust

Rastan can also attack while jumping. Action in an up-right /left direction is the same as that for Normal Thrust. For action in a down direction, if you press the A Button + Down Direction Button during the jump, Rastan continues a downward thrust offense until he hits the ground to inflict damage on enemies below him.

Defense

When the A Button on the control pad is not depressed, Rastan is always in a defense stance. However, this does not mean he is defending in all directions. It is only by combined use of the direction keys that it becomes possible to defend in different directions.

Standard Defense

 Up Direction Button;

Rastan defends himself above his head.

Rastan crouches and defends in a left (or right) direction.

Defense During Jumping

Rastan can also carry out a defense while jumping. The direction is operated in the same way as for Standard Defense.

Weapons

During the game, Rastan can use the following three types of weapons:

1. Normal Sword & Normal Shield

The normal combination with which Rastan is equipped.

2. Long Sword

Longer than a Normal Sword for a wider attack range and greater power. However, because the speed of swinging the sword is somewhat slower, it is not suited to continuous attack.

3. Iron Claw

A weapon that is held with two hands. It is light and fast, making it ideal for continuous attacks.

* 1 is supplied at the start of the game and when Rastan is resurrected after dying once. 2 and 3 are supplied by obtaining the items that appear in the course of the game.

Information Windows

- 1: Shows the score of the present player.
- 2: Shows the highest score up to then.
- 3: Shows the number of remaining lives for Rastan.
- 4: Life Meter. The  is extinguished each time Rastan receives damage. When all the  disappear, Rastan loses one life.

- 5: Round Timer. Starts a countdown simultaneous with Game Start for each round. Unless you clear the round before the timer reaches 0, Rastan loses one life.
- 6: Rastan's level: The level rises one step and Rastan's offensive power increases each time he obtains one of the "Stones of the Wise".

Game Over

The game is over when Rastan loses all his lives and there is nothing more on the Life Meter.

Continue

When the game is over, the "Continue?" message appears on the screen. Press the Start Button if you wish to continue playing.
